

Executive Briefing

China's Outbound Investments; New U.S.-China Tourist Treaty; and U.S. Investment Immigration

2:00 p.m., Thursday, February 5, 2009 • 55 West Monroe Street, 5th Floor Conference Room, Chicago, IL
(Subject to Change)

Significance of the Briefing

1. Follow-up on our first webcast: "Attracting Chinese Companies to Your City and Getting Chinese Companies as Clients"
2. Review the current outbound investments from China and the opportunities for U.S. state and municipal governments resulting from the current economic situation, as well as the investment immigration programs of the U.S. government
3. Examine the recently enacted U.S.-China memorandum of understanding signed December 11, 2007 and implemented in 2008, to allow U.S. destinations to market themselves in China and facilitate China group leisure travel from China to the United States
4. Discuss how we can potentially work as a group to further the interests of both U.S. and China
